

Dear Chairman Powell,

I think it is extremely important to halt any further media consolidation. Our news sources are already controlled by a handful of large companies. We need a diversity of news sources. I urge you to schedule public hearings on this issue--it is too important to be decided behind closed doors.

Thank you.